Property:

Wooded land near Newcastle. 179 acres in the foothills north of town and just outside the city limits. This property is uniquely located at the edge of town and has lots of potential.

Terrain:

The land has varied topography including timbered hills with ponderosa pine and cedar trees, several draws and nice southern exposure at an elevation of 4,400 feet. With heavy timber and hills that slope generally from north to south, the property has good natural protection. Several ATV trails run through the land.

Utilities:

No utilities are currently installed for service to the property. Power lines run close to the boundary.

Covenants:

The property does not have any covenants.

Access & Location:

From the end of McArthur Street the property is accessed via a private easement. It's just minutes from downtown Newcastle.
