Video Tour

Introduction: Distinctive Wyoming ranch in a picturesque Black Hills setting with an extensive set of improvements which includes a custom crafted log home and numerous outbuildings. It's situated on Stockade Beaver Creek along the historic trail of the Cheyenne-Deadwood Stage Route.

Property: The ranch includes 1,074 deeded acres. The terrain ranges from the rolling hay meadows beside Stockade Beaver Creek to the entrance of Brown Canyon and the steep hillsides that lead to Mount Pisgah. Pine, aspen and juniper forest cover the hillsides.

Home: The beautiful Jorgenson log home is masterfully placed at the end of the road in a private valley surrounded by timbered hills. With vacations and holidays in mind, the home was designed to take in the views and create an inviting atmosphere. This comfortable two-level home has 3 bedrooms and 2.5 baths, with a total of approximately 3,500 square feet plus a large rec room over the attached garage. The welcoming arrangement features a second story loft overlooking the living spaces below, stone fireplace, log stair case, open beam ceiling, log railings, a covered wrap around deck, and a screened in porch.

Outbuildings: The open front equipment shed is close to the home and offers a great spot to store ATVs. Just around the bend from the home is a well-kept set of support buildings. The guest apartment has an attached horse barn with four stall doors leading to the corral. The shop has a cement floor and two overhead doors. The machine shed is placed in a draw closer to the hay fields.

Water: A deep water well, at a depth of 1,103 feet, supplies water for the property. Stockade Beaver Creek also runs through the east side of the ranch.

Wildlife & Recreation: The property and surrounding area has prime habitat for a variety of wildlife including, deer, elk, turkey, mountain lion, bobcat, coyote, fox, and even a few antelope. This is an excellent location from which to enjoy the Black Hills in all seasons. Nearby destinations include Mallo Camp and Beaver Creek Campground where hundreds of thousands of acres of Black Hills National Forest can be accessed.

Access & Location: The ranch is north of Newcastle, Wyoming on Beaver Creek Road, which is a county maintained gravel road. It's about 14 miles to Newcastle and 9.5 miles to Four Corners.

Remarks: The ElBarBee is ideal for year round living or a Black Hills recreational getaway. An exceptional ranch where you will experience the warm ambiance of an attractive log lodge in an incredible western scene on Stockade Beaver Creek.
