Amazing Black Hills property on the divide just south of Devils Tower. 280+ acres with awesome vistas including Devils Tower, the Belle Fourche River Valley and surrounding countryside. An incredible landscape that ranges from a high plateau where big rolling fields are flanked with pines, then the land descends into a ruggedly beautiful canyon. Interesting rimrock formations line the canyon walls and the hillsides are covered with pine, cedar and bur oak trees. There is a spring in the canyon. This end of the road setting offers several outstanding building locations with sweeping views of the Tower and complete privacy. The property is situated about $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile west of Highway 24 on a private access. A very rare land offering with tremendous potential. The adjoining 728+ acres is also available.
