Property:

Picturesque acreage on the west side of the Black Hills. 35 acres located northeast of Newcastle, Wyoming in a private wooded setting. The property has been surveyed.

Terrain:

The land offers a striking landscape with steep timbered hills, meadows areas and interesting rock outcroppings. The scene is completed with a mixture of ponderosa pine, cedar and mountain mahogany. High atop the ridge a wooded building site offers southern exposure and seclusion. This pristine hilltop setting has amazing unobstructed views across the Salt Creek Valley and a wide expanse of the western Black Hills.

Utilities:

A water tap is already paid on the Canyon Water District. Electric and phone lines are on adjacent properties.

Covenants:

Minor covenants have been placed on the property. A copy is available upon request.

Access and Location:

The property is accessed via a private road that is shared with several neighbors. There is not a maintenance agreement on the private road. It's approximately 1/2 mile on this private road to Salt Creek Road, a county maintained gravel road, then another four miles to Highway 16. The property is approximately six miles from Newcastle.

Remarks:

This unique tract of land is in a beautiful location with the convenience of being only a 15-minute drive from town.
